Library Directors Are Told New Heating Plant Installed; Gift From Unidentified Donor

Directors of the Adams County Free Library Association at their September meeting Friday evening at the main library on E. High St. learned that a new heating plant has been installed there during the summer and that an unidentified donor or group of donors has underwritten the entire cost which is in excess of $1,700.

"The new furnace is in and ready to operate," President C. P. Keefer told the board. Then he added: "The finances are taken care of. Eight hundred dollars already have been received and the remainder is expected by next month." Questioned by board members about the source of the gift, he assured them "it is all in U. S. currency" but did not identify the benefactors.

Reports for the last two months were reviewed by the directors who spent most of the last half hour of the meeting trying to agree on a definition of a public library.

Plan New Service
The question came up with a two-page mimeographed report from a special committee named earlier this year to study the proposal to add a music or audio-visual department to the library's services.

The committee report submitted by the group's chairman, Prof. Francis Reinberger, recommended the establishment of a music department "as a project in which the library should legitimately enter."

In the lengthy discussion that followed two directors objected on the grounds of the cost of the program, the time it would require of the presently overloaded staff and finally because in their view a library "is essentially a collection of books."

Chairman Reinberger in his report had offered this definition: "A public owned institution that has been entrusted with the responsibility of serving as a repository, distributor and propagator of human culture" and had asked the question: "In this context does culture consist only of books or other items also?"

Urges Adoption
The committee report urged establishment of the new department without any starting date proposed because of the extensive offers of equipment and recordings now being made to the library, because other similar libraries are offering such a service and because it "seems to be a practical project with no great cost to the library involved." Reinberger pointed out there are funds for speakers, offers of all other component parts, offers of free installation of the system and an offer from the Jaycees to fit out a music room at the main library.

The committee report included a page of suggested operation procedures for the proposed department. Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, librarian, told the board many inquiries have been received for the loan of music and foreign language series recordings.

The question finally was listed for decision at the November meeting with some board members indicating plans to visit nearby libraries that operate such a department. Directors speculated about means of sampling public opinion of the matter but no plan was devised.

Reports On Appeal
Atty. Thomas Pyle, finance chairman, reported on the special appeal for donations to the library launched by mail this week throughout the county outside of Gettysburg. First returns are being received from the 1,200 letters sent to individuals. (Continued On Page 3)

The area involved is that part of the county home farm land which does not contain the present home and jail. The commissioners are considering retaining all of the land on which the present home and jail are located. ## Ike Flies To Washington For Important Conferences

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—President Eisenhower flies to Washington for a few hours today for conferences on two major problems—the Far East crisis and school integration.

Interrupting his vacation, the President arranged to travel from the summer White House across Narragansett Bay by helicopter or boat—depending on the weather—to Quonset Point, R. I. There he boards his private plane, Columbine III.

Early this week it was announced that Eisenhower would return to Washington today to be host at a late afternoon White House reception for a group of American, British and Canadian college educators—members and guests of the American Assn. of Universities.

Schedules Other Meetings

Later he booked meetings with Secretary of Commerce Weeks and Secretary of Labor Mitchell, and a goodbye visit with his economic adviser, Dr. Gabriel Hague, who has resigned to return to private business.

The President also arranged a White House luncheon conference, on the Far East situation and other matters, with Secretary of State Dulles.

They will size up again the Red China threats to invade the Chinese Nationalist offshore islands, and any developments since they conferred in Newport on that matter for an hour and 45 minutes Thursday.

The upshot of that meeting was a Dulles announcement that Eisenhower will not hesitate to commit American armed forces to defense of Quemoy and other Nationalist-held islands near the China mainland—if the President decides they are essential to security of the main Chiang Kai-shek bastion, Formosa.

Late Friday the summer White House announced Eisenhower also would confer in Washington with Atty. Gen. Rogers. The conference topic as put by Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty:

"The various pending matters before the courts on the subject of (school) integration."

JAMES HEFLIN CONVICTED ON THREE COUNTS

At 10:30 o'clock the jury returned a verdict of guilty on all three counts against James Hefflin, 23, Frederick. The verdict came 45 minutes after the jury retired. Hefflin was charged with assault with intent to kill, aggravated assault and battery and unlawful possession of a gun.

An Adams County jury was deliberating this morning charges against James Hefflin, 23, Frederick, Md., as a result of a shooting incident near Dick's Dam early the morning of July 15. Testimony was completed Friday afternoon and the attorneys made their closing talks to the jury. This morning the case went to the jury after the charge by Judge W. C. Sheely. Court convened at 9 a.m. for the unusual Saturday session of trial court.

Hefflin, who is married and a father, admitted firing two shots that wounded Bernard F. Ditzler, 20, Hanover, and District Attorney Daniel E. Teeter told the jury of 11 men and one woman that Hefflin was "slap happy with a gun."

On the stand Friday afternoon Hefflin said he fired a shot into the ground to "scare" occupants of another car that had drawn up along side the one in which he and two other Frederick men and several Hanover girls were riding. Then he got out of the car after an exchange of threats and fired two shots at a "big fellow who was coming toward me with his arm raised."

Fearing Other Had Gun
Hefflin said he was afraid the other man had a gun. He said he listened to radio reports of the shooting to learn the seriousness of the wounds.

Hefflin and his two Frederick companions of that night took the stand as the only defense witnesses as Defense Attorney H. Thomas Pyle pleaded self defense for Hefflin. Harold Perkins Jr., 19, Frederick, who appeared in court in a sailor's uniform, has pleaded guilty to illegal possession of a gun and the charges against Roy Marvin Jackson, 21, also of Frederick, were dismissed by the court on motion of Mr. Pyle after the Commonwealth's case had been completed Friday.

The Hanover girls had been called as state's witnesses.

Hefflin said he had bought the gun. "I don't know whether I bought the gun to make me feel big or to show off," he said. He said he and his friends usually had it with them in the car and often used it for practice shooting at a city (Continued On Page 2)

MERGENDAHL'S BOOK NEARS ABSURDITY

THE DRAMBLE BUSH, By Charles Mergendahl, G. P. Putnam's Sons, $3.95.

This is an inspired novel—inspired by the phenomenal sales of Peyton Place and the prospect of another sex-ridden movie about a New England town.

The sale has already been made to Hollywood for a "major production," and the promotional machine has been in high gear for weeks, getting ready to give it a big push into the best seller.

Like Peyton Place, this one has a doctor who commits a crime to spare other human beings suffering and goes to trial for it. It also has a gallery of sexual weirdies to garnish the central story. Exhibit A is the repulsive editor of the local weekly paper who blackmails girls into posing in the altogether for his polaroid camera. There is, too, the fetching blonde nurse who accompanies her offers of love and understanding with a semi-strip. Her boy-friend through much of the book is an Adonis of a lawyer whose first experience with sex was incestuous. As a result, he is unable to take the initiative in subsequent love affairs. But the blonde nurse helps him over that hurdle.

Main Story
The main story concerns Dr. Guy Montford and his uncontrollable passion for the wife of his hopelessly ill best friend. He dispatches the suffering invalid with an overdose of morphine, believing it an act of mercy. Later, he has doubts. He also has a wretched experience when, thrown into jail on a charge of homicide, he finds himself in the same cell with the alcoholic town bum—and learns that the bum is his real father.

This must surely rank as one of the rankest scenes in recent fiction and brings the whole story close to absurdity. The characters for the most part are drawn broadly and superficially, good enough for movie casting. If you're not interested in sincerity, artistic quality or freshness of vision, but can go along with a concocted story held together with a generous assortment of sex—this is your book.

TRUCKING FIRM GETS WARNING

HARRISBURG (AP)—A Chester County trucking company has been ordered to halt unauthorized trucking operations between points in the Philadelphia - Allentown-Bethlehem-Easton areas.

The Public Utility Commission Friday accused Jones Motor Co., Inc., Spring City, of a "subterfuge to evade the Pennsylvania law and jurisdiction of this commission" by shipping via New Jersey routes.

The firm holds both interstate and intrastate hauling rights, but Highway Express Lines, Inc., Philadelphia, and Modern Transfer Co., Inc., Allentown, complained that Jones, in effect, was using both to make illegally competitive within - the - state hauls without commission authority.

Jones was charged with 22 specific violations, including 11 shipments originating in Philadelphia and going to Allentown, Bethlehem, Easton and Catasauqua, and four from Easton to Philadelphia and Haboro.

The PUC said the trucking line admitted the transportation but set up as a defense the permits it holds from the Interstate Commerce Commission.

RAW POWER IS UNLASHED IN KING 'MOB'

KING MOB, By Christopher Hibbert. The World Publishing Co. $4.95.

The English are a proper and well-behaved people, who scarcely raise their voices, let alone their fists, in anger. But it was not ever thus. Author Hibbert with great skill and a keen dramatic sense has illuminated a tiny, almost forgotten, moment in history when for a little less than a week in 1780 London was controlled by a drunken, brutal mob.

It all began in 1776 when with the tide of war running poorly for Great Britain in the struggle with the American Colonies, Parliament decided more army recruits might be gained by tempering, albeit rather slightly, the harsh measures enacted against Roman Catholics during the reign of William III. Ultra-Protestant groups reacted strongly. The Protestant Assn., spearhead of the objectors, enlisted as its president a strange nobleman, Lord George Gordon, member of a Scottish ducal house blessed with more than the usual share of eccentricities.

Role Of Knight
A failure up to then, the youthful lord now was in his element in the role of knight in shining armor. Foresightlessness was one of his qualities.

On June 2 his adherents by the thousands assembled in St. George Fields, sang hymns, and marched solemnly to Parliament bearing an enormous petition calling for the repeal of the Catholic Relief Act. As could be expected, rowdies joined the parade. There was rioting outside Parliament, and its members were manhandled. Lord George had unleashed the hurricane. He was baffled.

The next day the trouble began in earnest. The Protestant Assn. and its leaders faded into the background. The dregs of London took over. Newgate Prison was stormed, and its inmates turned loose. Great sections of London were put to the torch.

No Police
There were no police in the modern sense, and there was much hesitation before troops were finally summoned into the heart of London and the riots put down. To the blood that had flown so freely in the streets was then added that of a motley batch of prisoners caught in the legal net. In 12 days, 44 were sentenced to death at Old Bailey, and 24 were condemned in the Southwark sessions. Lord George was tried, but acquitted.

His last appearance on the stage of his times was as a convert to Judaism. He died in prison serving a sentence for criminal libel against the Queen of France.

It was a strange times and a strange man. If history could be said to teach a lesson, this one says plainly that when a mob takes command, no matter what the original intentions of its leaders might be, the end is fearsome and horrible.

TAKES ANOTHER STEP TO BALK DEPORTATION

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Russell Bufalino, whose attendance at the so-called crime convention in Apalachin, N.Y., led to a deportation order, has taken another legal step to remain in this country.

His attorney, Mrs. Lena L. Orlow, filed a petition in U.S. District court Friday asking the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service to show cause why the deportation order should not be set aside.

The Board of Immigration Appeals in Washington dismissed an appeal on the order Tuesday.

Bufalino, a Pittston, Pa., dress and drapery manufacturer, was ordered deported on the grounds he is an undesirable alien who falsely represented himself as a U.S. citizen.

Native Of Italy
In the petition, the 55-year-old Bufalino conceded he was a native of Italy, but claimed he had always believed he was born in this country.

The petition charges, among other things, that there was "pressure from the outset of the case, both in published statements by Gen. Swing, commissioner of immigration, and in newspaper and magazine publicity commencing Nov. 14, 1957." The Apalachin meeting was held on that date.

Mrs. Orlow said further action will be taken Thursday on the appeal in District Court.

businesses and organizations. He acknowledged help from Girl Scouts in folding and stuffing the letters.

Circulation reports from Mrs. Wilson showed that total loans this summer were slightly above last summer despite the fact that "curb bookmobile service" was not given this year because library funds did not permit it. Higher circulation figures at the main library offset the 1,300 "curb" loans made last year.

Mrs. Wilson announced that regular bookmobile trips to schools will be resumed next week. The librarian was complimented by the directors on the library display at the South Mountain Fair this week.

Announces Gifts

Gifts of books in memory of Mrs. C. T. Ziegler, a former member of the library board, James L. Hafer and Julie Voss were listed by Mrs. Wilson.

In connection with his report as treasurer, Dr. Frank Hewetson said a substantial response to the current financial drive will be necessary if the library is to meet its 1958 budget. Last month $3,000 was received from the county commissioners and in July there was $875 from the Community Chest, $75 from the Fairfield joint school system, $200 from the Gettysburg Joint School system and $250 from the Robert C. Mackley estate, the latter for the purchase of non-fiction books on non-religious subjects.

Besides President Keefer these directors attended: Allen S. Stauffer, Prof. Reinberger, Dr. Hewetson, Attorney Pyle, Dr. Anderson, Mrs. Leon Ross the Rev. Amos D. Meyers and Mrs. Wilson, board secretary.

Declares British Trawlers Not Doing Any Real Fishing

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP)—Iceland's minister of fisheries says the British trawlers defying the new 12-mile limit around this North Atlantic island are not doing any real fishing.

"They're just wasting their time," Ludvik Josepsson said Friday night after touring three areas where British gunboats are watching over the trawlers.

The coast guard said it had intercepted messages between trawlers and the gunboats indicating the fishermen were fed up.

with poor catches and might leave soon for better waters. Increased concentrations of Icelandic Coast Guard gunboats were doing all they could to encourage such a decision by conducting a war of nerves against the trawlers.

The Icelandic vessels are making raids on trawlers, steaming in close to them as if to put on boarders to arrest the fishermen on poaching charges. When a British frigate races to the rescue, the Icelandic vessel goes off and applies the same threatening tactics against another trawler.

Iceland declared last Monday an extension of her territorial waters from 3 to 12 miles from the rocky headlands in order to protect her fishing grounds for Icelandic fishermen. Britain sent in the trawlers with Royal Navy protection to maintain her traditional fishing rights in the area.

ACTRESS WAS IN RED CELL INNOCENTLY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Actress Olivia de Havilland says she belonged innocently to a Hollywood Red front organization in the 1940s, but quit when she realized its Communist nature.

"Three months later the organization went out of existence, and I think I had a great deal to do with it," she testified.

The actress told her story to the House Committee on Un-American Activities last June 16. The committee made the testimony public Friday after the Los Angeles Herald-Express published portions of it.

Hearing A Formally

In Paris, Miss de Havilland commented that the hearing "was just a formality in connection with the extension of my citizenship."

She is now the wife of Pierre Gallante, a Paris magazine editor. Born in Japan of British parents, she became a U.S. citizen in 1941. As a naturalized citizen she needed special permission to continue living in Paris without losing her U.S. citizenship.

The questioned organization was the Hollywood Independent Citizens Committee of the Arts, Sciences and Professions, which the House committee and the California State Senate have since cited as subversive.

Are you a good housekeeper?

One way to answer the question — objectively, that is — is to count up the number of accidents you've had in your home in the last year.

If you were accident-free, then you probably keep a pretty neat place. If you had a couple of serious accidents, then there's probably room for improvement.

According to the National Safety Council, good housekeeping and safety go hand-in-hand.

"Good housekeeping," the council says, "can especially help reduce the number of falls. Keep roadblocks such as hassocks, stools and toys, for example, out of traffic lanes. You'll have far fewer falls."

Other council suggestions: "Don't leave medicine and potential poisons around where children can get at them."

"Keep your home neat and clean — but don't overdo things. A floor too highly polished is an invitation to a fall."

Chinese Nationalists Will Retaliate Against Commies

By SPENCER MOOGA

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Indications mounted on Formosa today that the Chinese Nationalists are preparing to bomb the Communist mainland if the Reds unleash massive artillery or bombing attacks on Quemoy.

The Communists gave no indication of carrying out last week's threat of redoubled bombardments however. Up to mid-afternoon, the Nationalist Defense Ministry had no reports of shelling since Friday, which was the lightest day since the Red shelling of Quemoy started two weeks ago.

The indications of just-in-case bombing preparations came after a top U.S. official in Washington said the complex of new Communist airfields near Quemoy would be bombed almost immediately if used for assaults on the Nationalist stronghold island close to the mainland.

U. S. Will Help

The U.S. authority hinted Nationalist planes would do the job But if the Reds try to carry out reprisals raids on Formosa or the Pescadores, the United States would be treaty-bound to protect them. The official said only conventional weapons — not nuclear bombs — were involved in the possible bombings.

The U.S. threat was matched by an unofficial one from Moscow. In the strongest Soviet denunciation of the West since the 1956 Suez crisis, Soviet newspapers and broadcasts indicated the Soviet Union and Red China may be about to join in some decisive action, diplomatic or otherwise.

The Communist party newspaper Pravda said any spread of hostilities over the offshore islands would provoke Communist retaliation throughout the Far East.

Western diplomats in Moscow sensed an approaching climax to the crisis as Premier Khrushchev cut short his vacation in the south to return to the Soviet capital. He told a visitor he was dealing with urgent matters, would stay in Moscow a few days, then resume his holiday.

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—Tropical storm Fifi worked its way to within 600 miles of San Juan today. Gales threatened the Leeward and northern Windward Islands, east of Puerto Rico.

Aircraft were ordered out at daylight to pin down the position of the season's sixth tropical storm, born Friday in the wide-ocean waters nearly 2,000 miles from the U. S. mainland.

CAIRO (AP)—U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld left today for Jerusalem after three days of talks with President Nasser and other United Arab Republic officials.

A spokesman for Hammarskjöld told newsmen in Cairo no concrete agreement had been reached, but he emphasized that the talks were exploratory and not intended to result in anything definitive.

After consulting with Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion on what he called routine business, Hammarskjöld will swing through Baghdad, Amman and Beirut. He is on a U. N. General Assembly assignment to facilitate withdrawal of U. S. and British troops from Lebanon and Jordan and ensure the stability of these two Arab states.

MARSEILLE, France (AP)—Investigators said today an explosion aboard a French Mediterranean liner Friday appeared to have been an act of sabotage. Thirteen persons were hurt in the blast aboard the 5,227-ton "President de Gaulle." The ship returned to Marseille under tow.

The explosion occurred in a ventilator shaft a few hours after the Casaleat had left for Bone, Algeria, with 700 civilian and military passengers. Algerian terrorists in France have been waging a campaign since Aug. 25.

BERLIN (AP)—An increased flow of refugees from Communist East Germany has overflowed West Berlin camps by about 30 per cent so an airlift has been started to speed up evacuation of refugees to West Germany.

British chartered airliners took 112 escapees toward new jobs in West Germany Friday.

Between 300 and 700 refugees are now coming into West Berlin daily. More than 15,000 arrived last month. There are about 26,000 refugees packed into some 40 camps in this city.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—A tough little task force converged on war-threatened southern Formosan waters today for the first combined amphibious landing of U. S. and Nationalist Chinese forces.

Units of the U. S. 7th Fleet, the Nationalist fleet and Marines and aircraft from both will participate in Operation Land Ho at Fangliao, south of the Formosan port of Kaohsiung, beginning Monday.

Only battalion-size striking forces from both nations, involving an over-all total of less than 10,000 men, will be used. An estimated 4,000 troops will be Americans.

THE U. N. BUDGET, in their plan, would be upped from the present figure of 55 million, to the magnificent, annual total of 35 billion dollars.

Two billion would be for day to day operations; 8 billion for the U. N. Peace Force; and 25 billion to be handed over to a World Development Authority.

Since some member nations are in arrears on their share of the 20 million a year needed to keep the present U. N. Emergency Force

SUPER-STATE

Year's Best Written Poorest Book Devoted To Furry Thinking On U. N.

GIVE THE TYPICAL political scientist a blank sheet of paper with an ordinary lead pencil and his doodles will likely be a diagram for some new government, or a complete reorganization of a government already in existence.

In a new book, "World Peace Through World Law" (Harvard Univ. Press, $7.50), Greenville Clark and Louis B. Sohn have dragged such doodles through five hundred handsomely printed pages.

After a long, hard look at the United Nations they became imbued with the spirit of Omar Khayyam to take "this sorry scheme of things entire; Tear it to bits and rebuild it more to the heart's desire."

More specifically, they would achieve a world law by rewriting practically every article of the present U. N. Charter.

OF COURSE the Charter of the U. N. contemplated there would be major revisions in 1955.

This was to be done, in the light of experience, by the General Assembly. Those who eagerly look toward the early federation of the world hoped in that year a truly super-government for all nations and all peoples would emerge.

The General Assembly, however, decided to leave well enough alone until the present machinery was under less stress and strain.

Since the General Assembly defaulted in its responsibility, Messrs. Clark and Sohn apparently decided to do a little ground work for the ultimate revision by submitting a more noble design of their own. This book is the result of their joint efforts.

THE AUTHORS have a rich background for such high level doodling. Both have been active in the World Federalist movement.

Mr. Clark is a distinguished lawyer. He has given generously of his talents to the American government before World War II, and in the furtherance of favorable publicity for the U. N. since 1945.

Mr. Sohn, a native of Poland, attracted favorable attention as a staff member of the U. N. He was invited to the Harvard Law School faculty in 1952.

AS SCHOLARLY propaganda for a stronger United Nations, the book defies its purpose. It is so unrealistic it alienates sympathetic readers.

Many will be more satisfied that no revision was attempted in 1955 after reading this opus.

Clark and Sohn would tamper with citizenship. Every citizen of every member nation would become a citizen of the U. N., but passports, restraints on immigration, national tariffs would continue under national control.

Just what, if anything, is accomplished by this new citizenship thus becomes quite vague.

ON ARMS and armaments they are more specific. All nations would liquidate their armed forces within twelve years.

The ownership of any weapons, warships or planes would become a monopoly of the U. N. It would maintain a Peace Force of 400,000 backed up by a reserve of 900,000.

A United States Nuclear Energy Authority would have a monopoly on all such materials, weapons, plants and equipment. It would provide the means for nuclear annihilation in case an outlaw nation successfully defied the U. N. Peace Force.

This sounds good, but few Americans will endorse this formula for making themselves and their nation hostages to decisions by the legislative apparatus Messrs. Clark and Sohn propose.

They propose an all powerful General Assembly of 625 votes. Russia, the United States, Red China, and India, being the most thirty votes each. England and France would have but sixteen votes each. Small fry like Iceland and Luxembourg would rate one vote each.

THE U. N. BUDGET, in their plan, would be upped from the present figure of 55 million, to the magnificent, annual total of 35 billion dollars.

Two billion would be for day to day operations; 8 billion for the U. N. Peace Force; and 25 billion to be handed over to a World Development Authority.

Since some member nations are in arrears on their share of the 20 million a year needed to keep the present U. N. Emergency Force in Egypt, these propositions become unrealistic to the point of painstaking folly.

Summary: It is perhaps the year's best written, poorest book. Doodles without benefit of printing press would bring the authors just as much fun and save someone, presumably the Harvard Press, a heavy printing bill.

Capt. James Cook made the first English explorations on the coast of Alaska in 1776.

Letters To The Editor

September 5, 1958

Dear Sir:
Thank you for giving the citizens of our community space in which to voice their opinions.

The needs of our community are so many. How can we suddenly afford to spend $6,000 a year additionally on too bright light in the center of town where we do not need such brilliant light?

Does council ever seek advice from a planning commission or civic architect? How can they afford to gamble on such a costly installation they never have seen elsewhere? Have they given any consideration to the suggestion that if we do need new lighting standards we buy colonial style ones?

(Name withheld upon request.)

September 5, 1958

Dear Sir:
The letters in yesterday's edition about town lighting are much to the point.

My own idea is that, instead of

Memorial For Deceased Vets Is Dedicated: "A monument not only to the men of Adams county who died in World War II — but a monument to prove what can be done when people decide to work together."

That summation of the value of the new auditorium at the South Mountain Fair grounds by Judge W. C. Sheely, the presiding officer, set the keynote for dedicatory exercises held Sunday afternoon at the fair grounds for the 1,500 capacity building. Eight hundred eighty-four attended the service. The dedication was to the memory of the men of Adams County who died during World War II, and speakers pointed out that such feats as the construction of the auditorium by men and women who dropped their regular work in order to see that the thing they planned as a community service should be done "epitomizes that which we call the American way of life," said Brig. Gen. Edward G. McCar, commanding general of the Carlisle barracks and principal speaker at the services.

Today's Talk

GRATITUDE

We go through life uplifted from time to time, by the gratitude of our friends, and some times by our so-called enemies, for even Christ was crucified by his enemies who knew not what they did. We could not live very many days without the gratitude and love of our friends. They help us up the steep places, and over the rough roads. They give us spirit and incentive. Their gratitude to us is more precious than anything of a monetary value. Gratitude is in the realm of the spirit, therefore something inspired.

People who learn to give out gratitude, from day to day, are setting aside treasures in heaven. And they are adding the love and confidence of an endless number of other human beings. There are times when each one of us finds it difficult to go on for lack of confidence. But if we have the gratitude of our friends, and even of those who do not know us, then we are the inheritors of great riches!

Every day we should prove our gratitude to God for every kindness and blessing. This gratitude is what unites people and governments. Without it there would be little confidence, and continual dissension. We owe more to gratitude for what we have done than any other source. The hearty handshake, the pat on the back, or an understanding word uttered at the right moment — in gratitude.

It is difficult to say what would happen if people always expressed their gratitude to others, but it would be a wonderful thing. It might change the world! What a great amount of encouragement is created by a comparative amount of gratitude expressed! What a multitude of great men and women have gone to their graves, broken in spirit because of a lack of gratitude given to them when they needed it most!

To talk is easy, show your skill; Get busy; if you fill the bill And have the goods, no doubt we will All know it.

Don't say: "What he can do I can." Cut out this conversation plan. For, after all, my little man, There's nothing to it. If some one else has rung the bell And made a bull's eye, do not tell That you could also do as well, But do it.

If you're as clever as you say, You should get busy making hay; Do something more than talk today. We'll see it. Don't merely brag that you could be As great and powerful as he, But get a hustle on and be, Yes, be it.

County History

Rev. Dr. David McConaughy

By B. F. M. MacPherson

The minister at Great Conewago and at Upper Marsh Creek Presbyterian Churches from 1800 to 1832 was the Rev. David McConaughy. As stated last week he was a native of Adams County, a grandson of that David McConaughy, who came to the Province of Pennsylvania from County Tyrone, Ireland, early in the eighteenth century. This first David McConaughy married Margaret Ramsey, and their son, Robert McConaughy, married Harriet Findley. Robert and Harriet (Findley) McConaughy were the parents of David McConaughy, minister of the Gospel.

In the files of the old "Adams Centinel" (later the "Star and Sentinel") are some rather interesting items pertaining to the McConaughy family, as follows: —

Emigrated From Ireland
1. Adams Centinel, Wednesday, December 13, 1815 —

"Arrived at the close of his life on Friday morning, December 8, 1815, David McConaughy, Esq., of Menallen Township, Adams County, Pennsylvania, having measured out nearly four score and nineteen years. He emigrated from Ireland to this country, about the twenty-first year of his age, and soon after became a resident of his farm on the Conewago, of which he died the possessor. In the perilous times of his country, he was the steady, undismayed advocate of energetic government, of rational liberty, and a zealous patriot."

Note: The grandfather of the Rev. David McConaughy, D.D. This first David McConaughy was first buried in Black's Graveyard (Upper Marsh Creek Presbyterian). After the Evergreen Cemetery was opened all the McConaughy graves were moved to that burial ground.

2. Adams Centinel, Wednesday, February 28, 1816 —

"Died, February 21, 1816, in this Borough, in the seventh-sixth year of her age, Mrs. Hannah McConaughy, mother of the Rev. David McConaughy."

Note: — Harriet (or Hannah) Findley, wife of Robert McConaughy, and mother of, among others, John McConaughy, Esq., Elizabeth McConaughy, and the Rev. David McConaughy.

committee for the firemen's block party which will culminate with the county association meeting. The fire companies participating in the parade will be competing for $525 in prizes. The judges for the parade were announced as John W. Brehm, George W. Zerfing, Murray B. Frazer, Jacob Britcher and Charles Beales.

Aides Retain Organization: Adams County's Nurses' Aide Corps will continue to function as an organization, it was decided at a picnic of the group at Caledonia park Tuesday evening. Mrs. Ira Henderson, Fairfield, captain of the corps, presided at the brief business session at which members voted unanimously to continue the organization and be available for community service. Members of the group served more than 22,000 hours at the Warner hospital during the war years.

"Died, Sunday, April 10, 1825, Miss Elizabeth McConaughy, sister of the Rev. David McConaughy, of this borough. She bore a tedious illness with the most perfect resignation, for she had this solace, that 'the world cannot give, nor can it take away.'"

Note: The daughter of Robert and Harriet (Findley) McConaughy, and sister of the Rev. David McConaughy, D.D., will be preached in the Presbyterian Church of this place, on next Sabbath morning, at 10 o'clock, by Dr. Watson, of New Jersey."

Some rather valuable historical and genealogical material was included in the printed version of this "funeral discourse," as follows:

"The Rev. Dr. David McConaughy was born in Menallen Township, York (now Adams) County, about six miles from Gettysburg, Pennsylvania, on September 29, 1775. His grandfather, David McConaughy, was the first of the family to settle in that region. Both the grandfather and father of David McConaughy (second of the name) were Soldiers of the Revolution. While his father (Robert McConaughy) was absent with the army his son David, then about two years of age, his mother being temporarily absent, David, with the child of one of the laborers, wandered off to a mill-race in the vicinity, and falling into it, remained there for some time. When discovered and taken out life appeared to be extinct, but after some hours of unceasing funeral, which took place on Saturday, January 31, 1852, was the largest that ever took place in our town (Washington, Pennsylvania), notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather prevented many from attending. The stores were closed, and all business suspended, from one to three o'clock in the afternoon, during the funeral ceremonies."

"A Memorial"
Several months after the death of the Rev. Dr. David McConaughy, the "Adams Centinel" noted that "A Memorial — By Divine Permission, a Funeral Discourse on the Life and Character of the Rev. David McConaughy, D.D., will be preached in the Presbyterian Church of this place, on next Sabbath morning, at 10 o'clock, by Dr. Watson, of New Jersey."

effort, suspended animation was restored. Early Classical School "Near his (David McConaughy's) home lived Mr. Monteth and from him David received the rudiments of his early education. When about ten years of age he was sent to a grammar school in the neighborhood, taught by a Mr. Boggs, which was one of the earliest classical schools established in the interior of the state.

This school having continued but a short time he (David) attended the Rev. Alexander Dobbin's School in Gettysburg. Here he prepared to enter college. He (David) graduated from Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pennsylvania, September 30, 1795. Among his classmates were Chief Justice Taney, Justice Kennedy of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, and the late Dr. Joshua Williams, D.D.

"Immediately after leaving college, he entered upon his theological studies under the direction of the Rev. Dr. Nathan Grier, of Brandywine, Pennsylvania. There he remained for two years and on October 5, 1797 he was licensed by the Presbytery of New Castle to 'preach the Gospel.' The next spring he received permission to itinerate for six months. On April 5, 1799, he took his dismission from the Presbytery of New Castle, and soon after placed himself under the care of the Presbytery of Carlisle. Having received a call from the united churches of Upper Marsh Creek and Great Conewago, he was ordained and installed their pastor October 8, 1800. In 1813 Upper Marsh Creek congregation moved their church to Gettysburg, and in that same year

Rev. McConaughy preached his last sermon in the old church, previous to its demolition. Pioneer For Reform "Dr. McConaughy was a pioneer in the movement for temperance reform. In this cause he worked faithfully all his adult life. "In the year 1807 he (Rev. McConaughy) commenced a grammar school in Gettysburg, for the purpose of training young men to enter college. ## BASILIO KO'S ARAGON IN 8TH; $236,521 GATE

By PATRICK MCNULTY
LOS ANGELES (AP)—"Sure I wanna fight Sugar Ray Robinson again—but only if the money is right," said little Carmen Basilio after pouncing dapper Art Aragon into a bloody, reeling dervish in eight savage rounds.

"I can fight either Robinson or Virgil Alkins, but Robinson has to fight me," said Basilio, who knocked Aragon loose from everything but his celebrated sense of humor Friday night.

"Is this guy Basilio really a welterweight?" asked the badly cut Golden Boy in mock disbelief as he sat in his dressing room, sipping beer.

Truman Gibson, head of the International Boxing Club, said Robinson has agreed to defend the middleweight title he lifted from Basilio last March.

Aragon showed the Wrigley Field crowd of 22,500 and a national television audience he had plenty of heart but not the guts to stop the relentlessly punching Chittanooga, N., boxer.

The gross gate of $236,521.10 set a California record.

Basilio, former welterweight as well as former middleweight champion, opened with his jungle-style attack and didn't let up until Referee Tommy Hart pulled him from the battered Aragon at 1:27 of the eighth.

Hart moved just as Aragon's corner threw in a towel, traditional symbol of ring defeat.

"I didn't ask for the fight to be stopped," said Aragon, "but I didn't want to go 12 rounds with him, either." It was the first knockout in Aragon's 103-fight career.

Under California rules, the fight is ruled a knockout even though the referee didn't count Aragon out. Such a ruling is permitted when a referee decides one fighter is hopelessly beaten.

BEARS SPANK LIONS 24-17

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Looks as if all the Chicago Bears needed to get back the winning touch was the return of Papa Bear George Halas as head coach.

With owner Halas back at the full controls after a two-year retirement, the Bears have won four straight National Football League exhibitions. They stand as the only unbeaten club after Friday night's 24-17 victory over the Detroit Lions before 40,000 in Dallas.

A 62-yard pass play from Zeke Bratkowski to Marion Hill set up the Bears' winning touchdown, scored on a short plunge by full-back Rick Casares in the fourth period. Detroit, winning two in NFL competition after losing to the College All-Stars, had tied the score 17-17 in the third period on a 52-yard pass play from Bobby Layne to Jim Doran.

The other 10 NFL teams will see weekend action with four games today and one Sunday. Los Angeles meets the Chicago Cards at Seattle, and tonight, Washington faces Philadelphia in Jackson, Miss. New York meets Green Bay at Boston, and Pittsburgh and Baltimore play at Buffalo, N.Y. Cleveland is at San Francisco Sunday.

CHICAGO (AP)—The United States Olympic Executive Committee is expected to announce tonight which of four American cities will receive approval to bid for the 1964 Olympics.

Vying for the right at Los Angeles, Chicago, Detroit and Minneapolis. The site selection committee met Friday night but refused to make any announcement until tonight when a news conference is to be held.

Regardless of which city is certified, there is no assurance that the United States will get the games.

DENTIST LEADS GOLF TOURNEY; FEARS FATIGUE

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dr. Frank Taylor, star of the opening day's play for the Americas Cup golf trophy, figures the two-day international competition may hurt his chances in next week's United States Amateur tournament.

"There's no question that stamina will be an important factor," said the 41-year-old Pomona, Calif., dentist. "And these two days will take a lot out of me."

"The Olympic Country Club's Lake course is fatiguing to play with its up and down terrain."

Beats Champions

Taylor led the United States to its commanding lead, 15 points to 8 for Canada and 4 for Mexico, over the course where the Amateur championships start Monday.

The U.S. has won all three previous cup events.

Taylor teamed with Bill Hyndman to score two points. He won two more in singles, beating the amateur champions of both Canada and Mexico.

Taylor, runner-up in the National Amateur last year, fired a one-under-par 34 for the first nine over the 6,680-yard, par 35-35-70 course. He beat Canadian champion Bruce Castator and Mexico's titlist Juan Antonio Estrada 6 and 5 each.

Defending U.S. Champion Hillman Robbins of Memphis and ex-champ Harvie Ward Jr. of San Francisco were shaky.

Shoot Best Ball 30

Robbins and Ward shot a best-ball 30 in the morning, losing to Mexico's Ignacio Lopez Jr. and Enrique Farias Jr. 2 and 1 but winning over Canadians Castator and Eric Hanson 2 up.

Robbins didn't play in the singles. Ward lost to 19-year-old Canadian Gary Cowan 3 and 2. Cowan also beat Mexico's Rafael Quiroz 7 and 6.

Oklahoma City's Charlie Cox, Rex Baxter of Amarillo, Tex., and team Capt. Billy Joe Patton of Morganton, N.C., also came out two-point winners in the singles.

Cox defeated Gordon Ball of Canada 6 and 4 and dropped Mexico's Lopez, 4 and 3. Baxter beat Doug Bujas of Canada 2 up and Mauricio Urdaneta of Mexico 2 and 1.

Blanks Braves Twice

Witt came off the bench after 10 days of inactivity to pitch his second straight shutout in his only two performances against the league-leading Braves.

He now has pitched 19 consecutive scoreless innings and given up only seven hits to the world champions.

Friday night's outing was the first for Witt since he suffered an inflammation of his right elbow Aug. 26.

Since then he has been taking heat pack treatments and was forced to miss two turns on the mound.

Witt's performance was typical for him against the Braves.

EMERY APPEARS FINE PROSPECT FOR PHILLIES

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A Philadelphia Phillies spokesman says that Cal Emery, former Penn State baseball standout, is regarded as a real major league prospect on the basis of his showing so far in pro ball.

Emery, signed by the Phils to a $35,000 bonus after two sparkling seasons for the Nittany Lions as a pitcher-first baseman, was assigned to the Class C Bakersfield farm team in California.

For a time the Phils were undecided whether to use Emery on the mound or at first base. They eventually decided, with Emery's approval, that his best major league potential lay at first base.

Hits 318

"We've had no cause to regret that decision," the spokesman said. "Cal is hitting .318 and has helped Bakersfield take the second half title in the California League. He already has 14 home runs, including two grand slams that won games for us."

The Phils expect Emery to return to Penn State, when the season ends Sept. 14, to complete his studies between seasons.

"It's part of Phillies policy to encourage this because most ball players are still young men when they finish their playing careers," the spokesman said.

WITT HANDCUFFS BRAVES WITH 19 SHUTOUT FRAMES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"I like to win them as they come," says right-handed pitcher George Witt of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

And when Milwaukee comes to town, he wins them. He beat the Braves 1-0 in 10 innings Friday night on the strength of Bill Virdon's ninth home run of the year.

The victory moved the Pirates back into a second place tie with the San Francisco Giants. Both teams now trail the Braves by 8 1/2 games.

CARLISLE, Pa. (AP)—Pittsburgh Mayor David L. Lawrence today said the state should set up a bureau which would keep small businesses in the state "fully informed on new developments and techniques valuable for improving business activity."

The Democratic candidate for governor suggested such a "bureau of business services" be set up in the State Department of Commerce. The suggestion was made in a speech prepared for a day-long rally and picnic for the statewide Democratic ticket by Cumberland County Democrats.

"Actually, many groups, including the federal government, trading associations, research and education institutions and larger business firms are constantly preparing valuable information on improved business practices," Lawrence said. ## Simple Steps Will Insure Proper Concrete Surface With Good Bond And Finish

By FRANK S. ZETTEL
Adams County Farm Agent

The following simple steps are suggested when it is necessary to resurface a concrete slab or to patch any concrete surface:

If the old concrete surface is smooth, roughen it with pick, hammer or rough-grinding machine. Remove the loose particles. Thoroughly clean the surface of all grease, oil, paint or other materials that will interfere with the bond. Grease and oil can be removed by scrubbing with gasoline. Paint must be chipped off. Dirt can be removed by scrubbing with 10 to 20 per cent muriatic acid solution or with strong washing soda solution.

Thoroughly flush the surface with water to remove all acid or washing soda. Keep wet overnight. Before placing new concrete, remove any free water on the surface and allow an hour or two for drying.

For proper bond, broom on a slush coat of portland cement and water mixed to the consistency of thick paint. Brush out well to avoid too heavy a coat. This slush coat must not dry or harden before the concrete is placed. Use a concrete mix of 1 part portland cement, 1 part sand, and from 1½ to 2 parts coarse material by volume. Use as little water as possible — not more than 5 gal. per sack of cement. Adjust the amount to give the desired workability.

Place the concrete and finish with a wood float; follow with a steel trowel if a smooth surface is desired. Protect the concrete against rapid drying by covering it with set sand or burlap, waterproof paper or other material. Cover as soon as possible without marring the new surface. Keep covered and wet for at least five days to cure properly.

At least 1 inch and preferably

2 inches of added new concrete is needed for satisfactory resurfacing.

Pullets Need Clean Houses

When laying pens have been emptied, give the house a thorough cleaning and renovation before the new pullets are moved in from the range. On some farms normal culling so reduces the number of hens in several pens that they can be combined and the empty pen made ready at the poultryman's convenience.

A good job of house cleaning includes making all necessary repairs to building and equipment. Close up rat holes and declare war on these income-reducing, feed-wasting rodents. Some remodeling may be desirable or necessary.

Remove portable equipment and loose litter and after dusting down the ceiling and walls, use water and scrub brushes to help remove the balance of the year's accumulated dirt and dried droppings. A scraper helps speed up this job. Water under pressure also saves time and labor.

Hot Lye Solution

When scrubbing is necessary use a hot lye solution for effective cleansing and disinfecting. One can of lye is used with 20 to 30 gallons of water. In handling this material be careful to avoid painful burns. Follow cleaning with a spray of good coal tar disinfectant. Force the spray into cracks in the walls, dropping boards and nests to destroy parasites which may be lodged there.

Paint all woodwork around roosts and nests with red mite paint. Neglect of this phase of management may mean an infestation of mites which can seriously retard the development and affect the health of the pullets.

Allow the house to dry out well before the litter is placed on the floor and in the nests. When the house and equipment are in proper condition, bring the new pullets to their home for the egg producing year ahead.

High Moisture Corn
High moisture corn stored in silos is being used by more farmers each year for feeding their cattle and hogs. Corn of about 25 to 30 per cent moisture is just as good for feeding cattle as corn with 12 to 14 per cent moisture. In fact, sometimes high moisture corn has shown better results than dry corn, when compared on an equivalent dry matter basis.

You can store corn in an upright silo either as ground ear corn or shelled corn. The equipment you have will determine the way in which you'll store the corn. A silo will hold about 80 per cent as much actual grain when you grind the whole ear, compared to storing shelled corn. But your silo must be in good shape, because pressures are greater than for corn silage.

Storing high moisture corn means early harvest when the corn is dry enough to grind or shell — around 30 per cent moisture. This means smaller picker losses, and you don't have to worry about the corn being dry enough to store safely. Cheap storage is available in your silo, too. Rodent and spoilage losses are very low, especially during winter feeding. In warm weather you'd have to take three to six inches off the top every day to prevent top spoilage. Once it's in the silo, the corn doesn't need further grinding, and is easily adapted to automatic feeding.

High moisture corn stored in a silo is slightly fermented and highly palatable to cattle and hogs. Most livestock feeders who have tried it are well satisfied. So if corn storage is a problem for you this fall, you might think about storing high moisture corn in an upright silo.

Egg whites, heavy cream and gelatin mixtures expand when they are beaten because air is being introduced.

OCT. 1 DEADLINE FOR LIVESTOCK SHOW ENTRIES

A Pennsylvania stockman has taken the lead in entering cattle in the forthcoming Second Pennsylvania National Livestock Exposition to be held in Harrisburg November 10 to 14.

William L. Medford, Chester, chairman of the 1958 show committee, today pointed out to Pennsylvania farmers, feeders and breeders that entries in the "Keystone International" close at midnight October 1.

W. L. Batchelor, owner of Reynard Run Farm, Downingtown, Chester County, was the first to enter with some of his purebred Angus in the beef breeding cattle classes, Medford said. Entries are coming in also for various sheep and swine classes, he added.

Add Sheep Classes

The president of the Pennsylvania Livestock and Allied Industries Association, Inc., Leon Falk Jr., of Pittsburgh, points out that the Pennsylvania National is not just a purebred cattle show, but rather a place where commercial cattlemen can come to learn what the buyer and packer are looking for when buying meat animals.

"Carcass shows for market steers, barrows and wethers have been expanded this year," Falk said. "Pen lot shows have been increased in scope and are expected to gain as much interest as any part of the exposition."

While emphasis will be on commercial production, breeding classes are also going to be prominent. The National Show of the American Breeders' Association will be held during the exposition. Columbia and Rambouillet sheep classes have been added.

New Feature

A new feature sure to be appreciated by visitors to the stock show is the addition of a "Pennsylvania Livestock-Rodeo Queen." The young Pennsylvania rider will lead the parade at each performance of the Tommy Stelner World Championship Rodeo November 11 through November 15.

The four-acre Farm Show building exposition hall will be the scene of the first Mid-Atlantic National Truck Show.

The exposition is presented by the State Livestock and Allied Industries Association, Inc., in cooperation with the State Department of Agriculture.

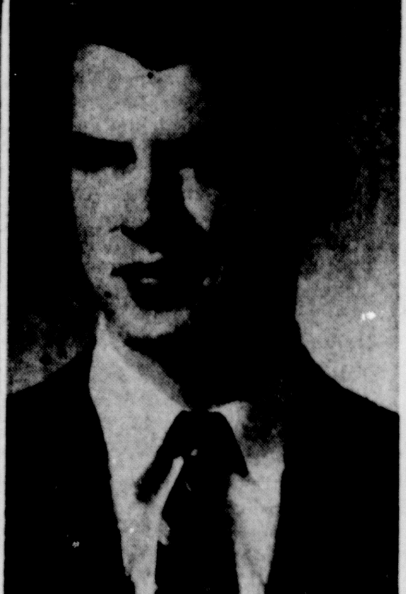

Brigham Young is unbeaten against Canisius in basketball. BY won 50-49 in 1942 and in 1945 the score was 62-52.

STRIKERS FAIL

TO GET BACKING

IN SCHOOL ROW

VAN BUREN, Ark. (AP) — A group of about 50 segregationist white students apparently succeeded Friday in keeping Negroes out of integrated Van Buren High School.

But they failed in their boast that hundreds of other white students would join them in their boycott, which started Thursday night.

"You'll see very few white kids in there (the school) tomorrow," Newsmen watching all three entrances to the 600 pupil high school did not see any of the 13 Negro students arrive at class time, 8 a.m. (CST). Later, reporters who were permitted inside the two-story, red brick building, found only white students in the classrooms.

The leaders of the student strike stationed themselves across the street from the high school and called to other students to join them as they arrived for class.

The strikers fashioned a cardboard sign and attached it to a telephone pole. It read: "Chicken whites go to school with pigs."

A sprinkling of girls joined the striking group. Loud cheers went up as a student left the school ground to join them.

Class As Usual
But a huge majority of Van Buren High's students attended class as usual.

One school official said, "Those are nice kids," referring to the students who filed into the building hurriedly when the first buzzer sounded. Nodding toward the strikers, he said:

"It's the few out there that get the publicity."
The official estimated that only about 35 of the striking group actually were enrolled in the high school.

A spokesman for the parents of the Negro students said a meeting would be held over the weekend to decide what to do.

As the boycotting white students milled about, a number of white adults watched quietly from automobiles and street corners.

HURRICANE IS

NEARING UPPER

TEXAS COAST

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP) — Light rains whipped by gusty winds fell along the middle and upper Texas coast today to herald the approach of tropical storm Ella.

At 1 a.m. (CST) the Weather Bureau said the storm's center was 35 miles east of Corpus Christi and moving west north-west at 15 m.p.h. The highest wind reported at coastal stations in the preceding six hours was 40 m.p.h. in the Freeport, Tex., area.

Tides along the middle and upper Texas coasts were running near four feet and were expected to rise another foot. Earlier they had sent water over the highways near the beaches.

FAR EAST POSTS LARGE IN AREA AND POPULATION

By SPENCER MOOSA

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — The two Far Eastern islands now at the center of world tension—Formosa and its outpost Quemoy—are about the size of Massachusetts, Connecticut and Rhode Island combined.

They contain a few million more people than those states. Formosa has a population exceeding 10 million, including an estimated 200,000 Chinese Nationalist soldiers. Quemoy is home for some 47,000 farmers and fishermen and the base of some 75,000 troops.

The troops are trained by U.S. military advisers, equipped with American weapons and well officered. The basis of Nationalist President Chiang Kai-shek's army is the men who followed him to Formosa in 1949 when he lost mainland China to the Communists. But those men have grown older now and the average age of the army actually is lower because of replacement recruiting from residents.

Defy Communists

The population on both Formosa and Quemoy appears always ready to celebrate Nationalist successes. There has been natural uneasiness over the Quemoy situation, but Communist surrender-or-die threats have met only defiance.

Portmores capital city is Taipei. Other major cities are Keelung, the seaport for Taipei at the northern end of the 240-mile-long island, and Kaohsiung on the southwest coast.

Portuguese navigators in the 16th century gave the island its name of Formosa, meaning "beautiful." The Chinese name of Taiwan means "the name of Taiwan."

Quemoy, a dumbbell-shaped island of 50 square miles, lies 120 miles west of Formosa and within 5 miles of the Communist Mainland. Its name in Chinese is Kinmen, meaning "golden gate."

until 1812, when he relinquished it in favor of a county organization. Among his pupils were the late Jeremiah Chamberlain, D.D., the late Rev. John E. Annan, and his brother the Rev. William Annan. Rev. John Holmes Agnew, Rev. H. L. Baugher, D.D., the Hon. Daniel M. Smyser, and the Hon. James H. Graham. Elected to the presidency of Washington College, March 12, 1830 he, at first, refused. On December 31, 1831 he was again offered the post, and this time he accepted. He was inaugurated May 9, 1832. He resigned this position on October 1, 1849.

"In his domestic relations Dr. McConaughy was indeed fortunate. In the spring of 1802 he was married to Miss Mary Mahon, the daughter of David Mahon, Esq., of Shippensburg, Pennsylvania, with whom he lived most happily for nearly fifty years. There were no children.

"On January 11, 1852, the Rev. Dr. David McConaughy preached his last sermon in the church at Washington, Pennsylvania. He died January 29, 1852."

The notes on Great Conewago Presbyterian church and burial ground will be continued next week.

BELLEFONTE, Pa. (AP) — A hunt was on in this area today for a young prisoner who escaped from the Rockview State Penitentiary Friday night.

Officials said Donald Greenwalt, 24, climbed the wire stockade and escaped as a canny detail ended its work for the night.

Greenwalt entered the prison last Aug. 27 to begin a 5-to-10 year sentence for burglary.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Revenue Department Friday announced the appointment of Francis S. Urbany, Carmichaels, as an administrative officer at an annual salary of 6,090 a year.

MILTON, Pa. (AP) — An auto went out of control and struck a wall on Route 14 Friday night, killing the driver, Guy W. Baker of Milton.

GOP PLATFORM IS ADOPTED AT FRIDAY MEET

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Republican State Committee assembled here today and considered for adoption a broad platform that pledges an educational expansion, increased benefits for the unemployed and opposition to a state wage or income tax.

The platform for the November elections was drawn up Friday night in a final meeting here of the GOP Platform Committee and recommended to the State Committee.

The platform also calls for an expansion of the state's health and welfare programs, new highways, highway safety controls, an all-out effort against juvenile delinquency and crime, a solution of farm problems and attracting new industry.

Good Business Tax

It pledges continued efforts to encourage a favorable business tax and climate to attract new industry for Pennsylvania and to allow existing industries to provide more productive employment for the state's citizens.

The platform suggests taking all steps necessary to strengthen Pennsylvania's National Guard and amendments to the State Constitution to lower the voting age from 21 to 18 and to authorize annual sessions of the General Assembly.

Even though the platform opposes a state wage or income tax, it feels an increase in state revenue will be needed, but it does not say how it should be brought about.

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — A pair of New Yorkers, Jimmy Turnesa of Elmford and Mike Souchak of Grossinger, led today going into the second round of the $17,000 Utah Open.

They had 64s in the initial round over the par 72 Salt Lake Country Club. Long-hitting Arnold Palmer of Alafatrobe, Pa., had a 65 while 66s were carded by Bo Winingler of Odessa, Tex., and Don Whit of Alameda, Calif.

Restaurants To Pay Dollar Minimum

HARRISBURG (AP)—The restaurant industry on Friday endorsed a one dollar hourly minimum wage for women and children in the industry.

Harry C. First Jr., a Harrisburg attorney representing the Pennsylvania Restaurant Assn., told the nine-member minimum wage board set up to study wages in the restaurant, hotel and motel industries that the restaurant operators would go along with the dollar minimum provided "appropriate differentials are made for meals and tips."

The board is winding up a series of hearings on proposed new minimums in the three industries.
